

To amend Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (Act of June 20, 1949, ch. 227, sec. 6, 63 Stat. 211) is hereby amended by the addition of a subsection
"f" as follows:

"(f)(1) Notwithstanding Section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894, 28 Stat. 205, as amended, 5 USCA 62, or any other law prohibiting the employment of any retired commissioned or warrant officer of the Armed Services, the Agency is hereby authorized to employ and to pay the compensation of not more than fifteen retired officers or warrant officers of the Armed Services while performing service for the Agency, but while so serving such retired officer will be entitled to receive only the compensation of his position with the Agency, or his retired pay, whichever he may elect.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall limit or affect the appointment of, and payment of compensation to retired officers not presently or hereafter prohibited by law; Provided that, upon such appointment, officers retired for injuries or incapacity incurred in line of duty may, in addition to the elections set forth above, elect to receive, in addition to his retired pay, annual compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which the compensation of his position with the Agency exceeds his retired pay."
